

sinclair plans to use public airwaves to express their personal political beliefs.

That is not TV that serves anyone.

Being that the fake documentary that they plan to show about Kerry is clearly a Republican campaign tool, it should be considered a contribution. Sinclair is contributing all of that prime-time, which is a substantially large contribution. And illegal.